Telescope

An Observatory...

America is the youngest of the nations; and inherits all that went before in history. And we are the youngest of America's children and into our hands is given all her priceless heritage, to the last white star espied through the telescope, to the last great thought of the philosopher. Ours is the whole majestic past, and ours is the shining future. We are the youth of America, and the future lies in our hands. We are the future presidents and teachers, writers and ship-builders, farmers, miners, doctors, business men, and all the people who make America. There will be those who plan and supervise the work and there will be those to do the actual building, for ours is a future of building and reconstruction. It holds a mighty challenge and because we are the youth of America, born with a background of pioneers and fighters, we can accept this challenge. Let us each hitch his wagon to a star, and America, because of us, will go on being—America.

WHEN I HEARD THE LEARN'D ASTRONOMER

When I heard the learn'd astronomer,
When the proofs, the figures, were ranged in columns before me,
When I was shown the charts and diagrams, to add, divide, and measure them,
When I sitting heard the astronomer where he lectured with much applause in the lecture room,
How soon unaccountable I became tired and sick,
 Till rising and gliding out I wandered off by myself,
 In the mystical moist night air, and from time to time,
 Looked up in perfect silence at the stars.

—Walt Whitman

The

Because of your unfailing trust in youth and your wisdom and understanding when encouraging and advising young people in their future careers, we, the senior class of 1942, dedicate this book to you, Mr. Snyder.

Star of the Year...

MR. O. H. P. SNYDER

Kansas and Missouri were the scenes of Mr. O. H. P. Snyder's boyhood and early college days. He spent the first few years of his school life in Kansas City, Missouri, and at the age of ten he with his parents, moved to Hays, Kansas, where his elementary education was completed. Mr. Snyder entered Teacher's College at Hays for one year, then matriculated in Kansas University where he received his A. B. and M. A. degrees.

Following his graduation from the university he taught in the field of social science for a short time, then accepted the position of supervising principal at Frankfort, Ohio. Three years later the position of principal of the Jackson high school was offered to him. From there he came to Harding High in the summer of 1940.

Many demands are made upon Mr. Snyder in connection with his position as principal of Harding High school. However, in spite of this, he finds time to enjoy his hobbies, music and gardening.

Forever memories

Who shall forget the Friday assembly — the day of the red bandannas — the carolers at Christmas — the N. C. O. championship — the morning announcements — but most of all — the friends we must leave behind? Who can forget?

Bootes, the Hunter

Teachers will be helping students "hunt" for knowledge as long as the hunter, Bootes, chases the bears across the skies. Because of this similarity, Bootes seems to represent the faculty and administration of Harding High better than any other constellation.

THE ADMINISTRATION

The school year 1941-42 has been full of many happy occasions. May this book enable you to relive them in the years to come.

The coming of war has given us all a keener realization that our main purpose in school is to learn the fundamental values of citizenship in a democracy. We shall be more or less directly involved in fighting those governments which oppose the way of life of democracy. Democracy has just as grave dangers in forces that are apt to grow almost unobserved within our country — forces of greed, hysteria, hatred and intolerance. Let us all rededicate ourselves in this period of genuine danger to the cause of building, against both external and internal forces, the culture which is our common heritage of Christian Democracy.

O. H. P. Snyder

Those who have labored to produce the 1942 edition of the Quiver deserve rich commendation for their efforts. I am happy in this manner to extend my greetings to the staff and to the student body for this excellent piece of work.

Harding High gives all out aid...

Stepping into the war emergency, Harding High School students donated their services as loyal American citizens. The typing classes gave their time to civilian defense; the girls knitted for Red Cross; lights were conserved for the national emergency; the school met their Red Cross quota; the boys had military training; day-light savings time upset our schedule; and many took the first aid course offered. However, we all studied to become better statesmen, doctors, engineers, lawyers, biologists, teachers, chemists, and ministers for the reconstruction period that will follow this era of confusion.

Saturn with its many rings of friendship has been chosen to represent this page in honor of Miss Mabel Turney, who has added much to Harding in many years on the faculty.

In Honor

In grateful tribute to the young people of Marion and of Harding High School to whom Miss Mabel Turney in her years of service has been an example of all that is finest and best, this page is dedicated.

We have missed her this year and sincerely hope that she will be with us next year and many more years.

The leaders of the school, the seniors, take their place as the monarchs on the throne. Consequently we choose the constellation, Cepheus or The Monarch, to portray them.

With dignity, stateliness, and confidence the seniors of 1942 will step into a world where pages of history are being written every day. In fact, it is a world which has never before seen such turmoil or such opportunity for ambitious youth. This class has all of the qualities that will enable it to fit into the complicated scheme of things. Now let's pause for a moment to review their high school lives.

Students elected to freshman class offices at Central were: Charles Reading, president; Leroy Harvey, vice president; Eileen Roberts, secretary; and John Rea, treasurer. Under the direction of Miss Zelma Howard, the dramatic talent of this class presented three plays: "Ask Nancy," "Five For Bad Luck," and "Ship-builders." The "X-Ray," their school paper, mirrored the activities around Central while football and basketball held the athletic limelight.

and God of the Sky

Student life at Vernon and Rennon Years, 1938-1941
Student, Mrs. R. L. Johnson, and Miss C. C. L. Johnson. The plays, "In Spring A Young Man's Fancy," "Feed Store Mystery," "The Visitor," and "The Tantrum" were given under the direction of Miss Mildred Wetteraur, dramatic coach. All the news around the school was collected in the "Vernonion," the school paper.

The two classes from Central and Vernon merged into one group as sophomores. Day Hurst led them as class president; Jim Turner, vice president; Leo Belknap, secretary; Charles Reading, treasurer. All of these boys were football players. The sophomores quickly adjusted themselves to life at Harding and showed great promise for the next two years.

Gridmen again swept the class offices in their junior year. Day Hurst, Jim Turner, and Leo Belknap repeated in the top three offices while Ed Messenger was elected class treasurer. Donnabelle Roberts had the lead in the junior play, "Green Stocking," directed by Miss Lois Peterson. The class participated in athletics, debate, and other activities.

With the junior class from Edison, the class of '42 came into its own in its senior year. For the third consecutive year football lettermen took all of the class offices. Day Hurst and Jim Turner repeated for the second time as class president and vice president respectively. Ed Messenger was elected class secretary and Bill Fate class treasurer.

Harding's grid warriors, led by Charlie Roberts as captain turned in the best record in Harding's football history with an undefeated, unscored-on season. Harding's 1941 grid squad won the undisputed N. C. O. championship and was the only class A team in the state to complete their schedule without a single point scored on them. Harding finished the year with an excellent all around sports record.

Senior girls were busy with work in the Girl Reserves, G. A. A., Kinesian club, and Tironian club, while the boys were kept busy with Hi-Y and athletics. Props and Q's, the junior and senior choirs, the French and Latin clubs offered opportunities for leadership to both the boys and girls.

Looking over the panorama of the past four years, the class of 1942 sizes up with the best of high school graduating classes. They are ready to go out into the world of affairs, prepared and eager to turn this topsy-turvy world right side up.

The constellation of "The Big Bear" has been chosen to represent the junior class who have not yet become "monarchs" but like a big bear show their superiority over the younger ones.

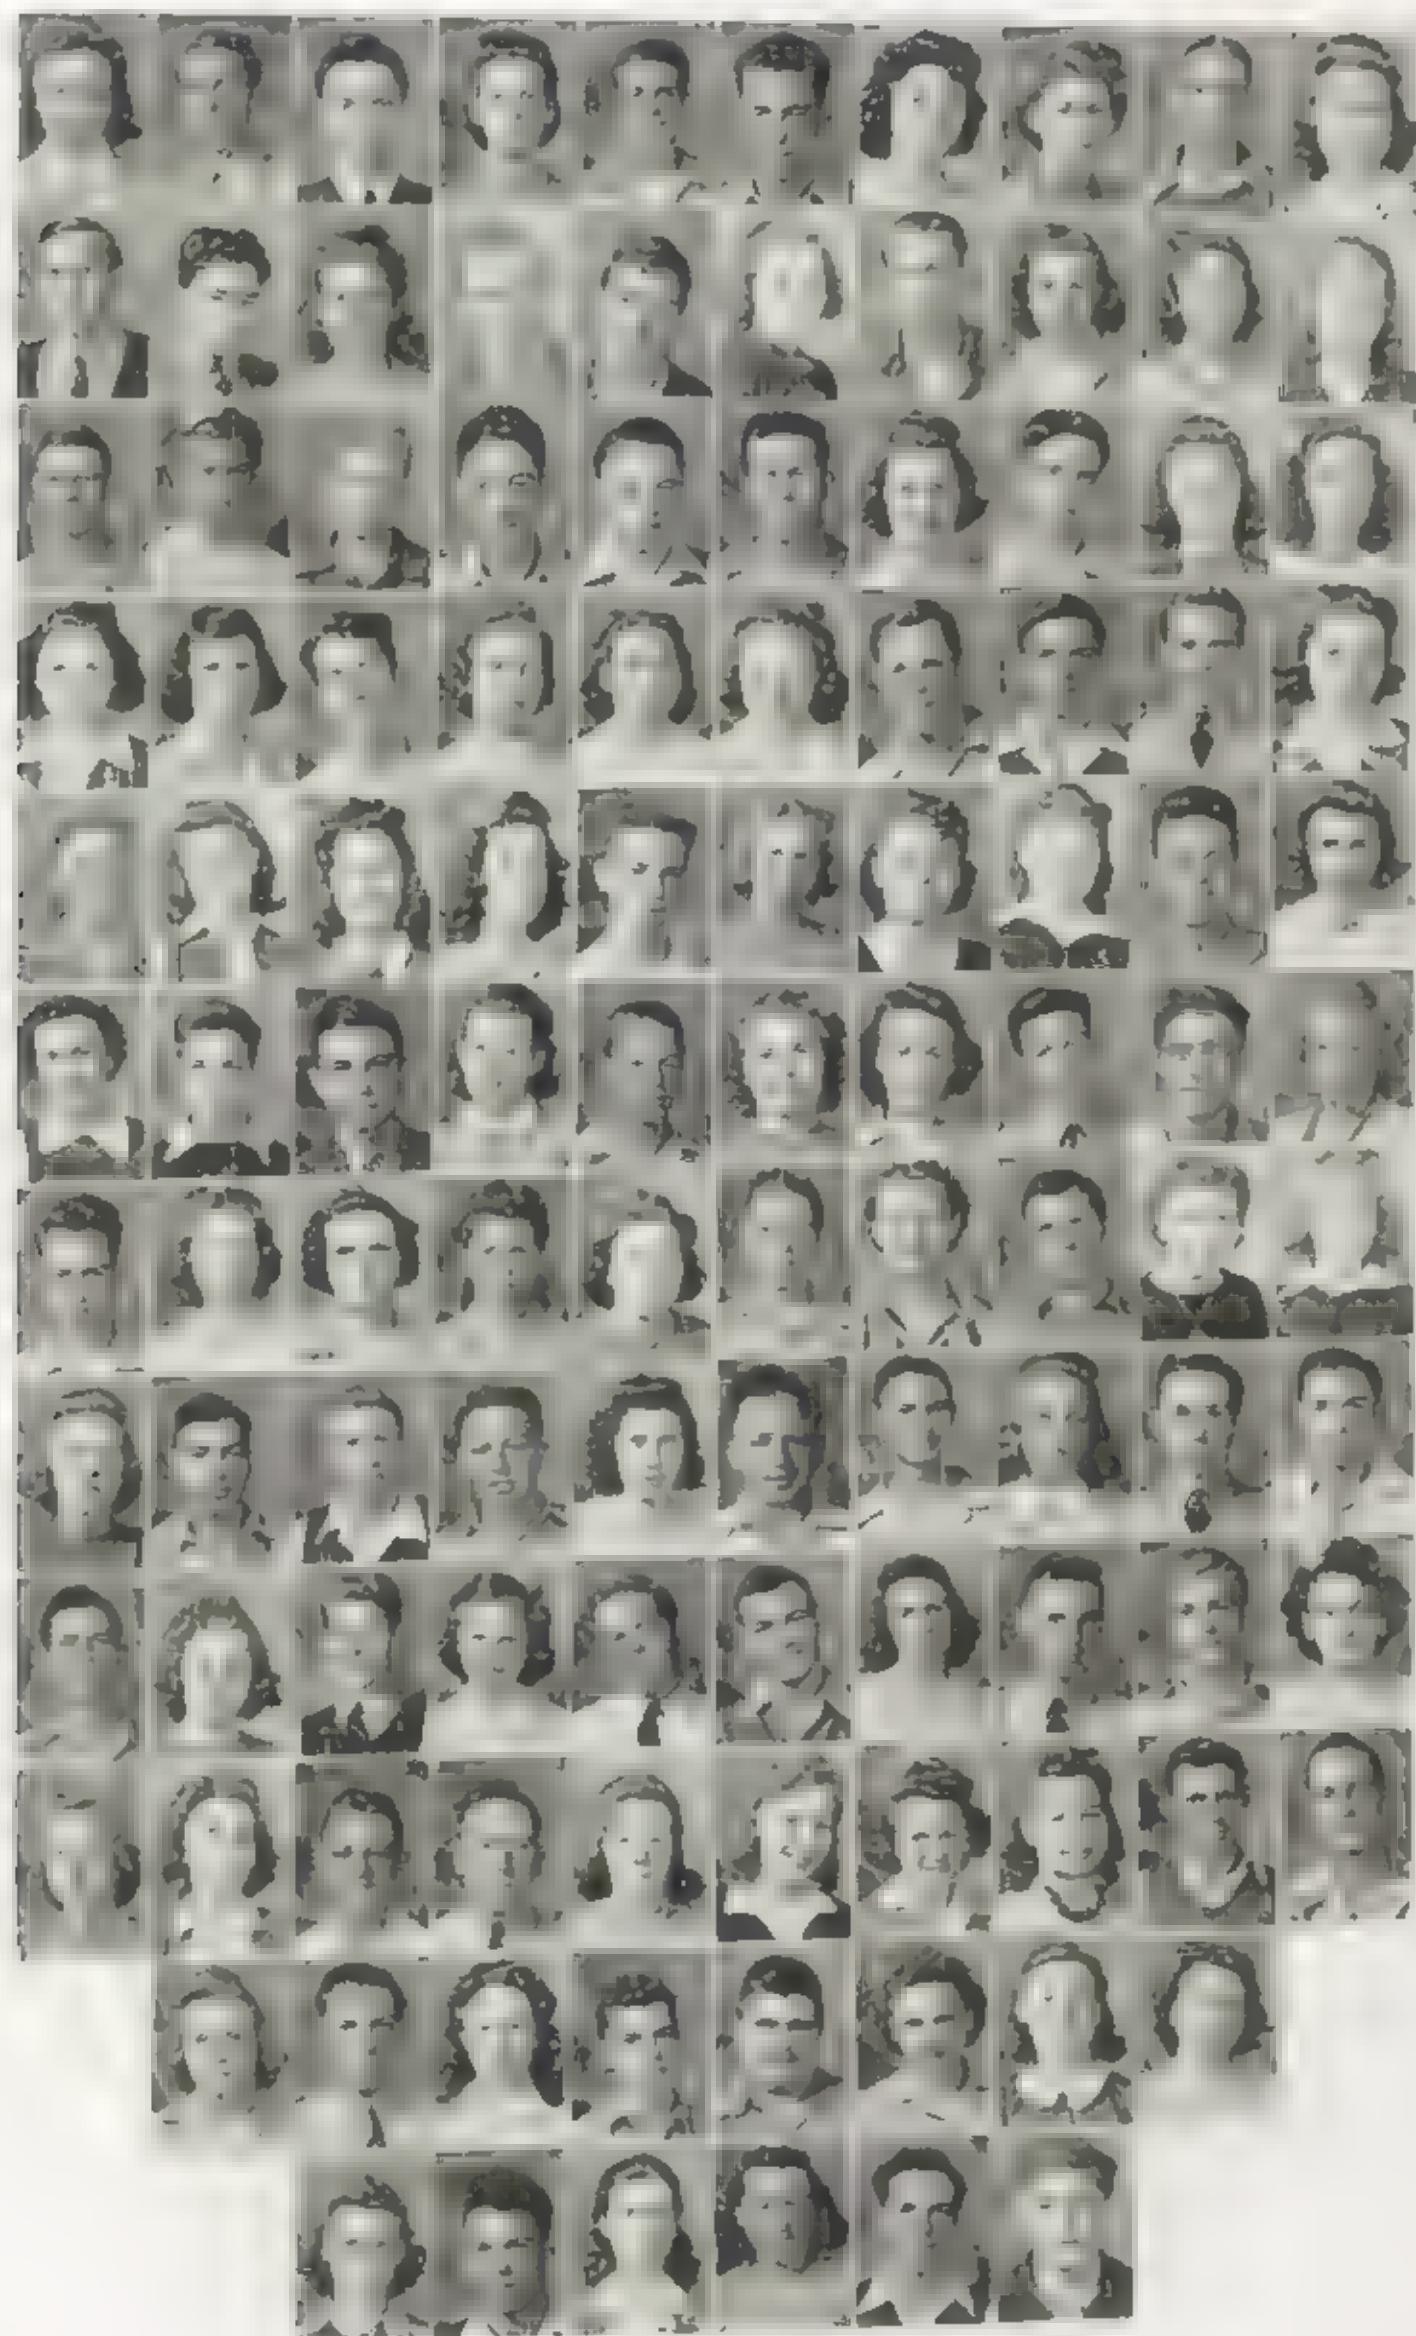

The members of the junior class chose leaders who were well known to all the class and who contained characteristics typical of the whole class: Keith Williams, president; Morgan Barnhill, vice president; Mary Johnson, secretary; Fred Ruhl, treasurer.

The juniors produced the play "Joy of Living" which was a hit. It was filled with laughs, intentional and otherwise, and with spontaneous joy. The play had all the stellar characteristics of a successful production with expert directing by Lois Peterson.

Athletics—football, basketball, track—all had representatives from the junior class who helped Harding to terminate a top notch season. The class, as a whole, was solidly behind the teams in their support, even when all the basketball games had to be played out of town.

The class benefited from the many activities of the school. Some of them took part in the various clubs and organizations, while others were more interested in their studies. All of them, however, realized that, after all, school is mainly a place for learning.

Although learning may sound austere and stiff, the art of learning how to get along with your neighbor is a very useful, everyday thing that must be realized by any group. Learning to recognize the other fellow and to be kind to him were seen by the class to be necessary for success.

Parties and dances dotted the season. Juniors took part in these recreations. The newly organized Co-ed Club also attracted their attention.

Activities outside the direct line of school and club activities caught the eyes of the class. In this time of national emergency, the juniors joined all of Harding in finding its place in service to the nation in the Red Cross, in first aid courses and by buying defense stamps and bonds. They also were taught the value of conservation in school and at home.

In connection with conservation, they have not forgotten their true position as students in preparing for the future and in conserving their strength for necessary service to the nation, to others, and to themselves.

The juniors take pride in having completed another year at Harding. They are glad to have been able to carry on the fine traditions of the school that have been handed down from one class to the other.

Looking back, we see that the junior class, or rather classes—we cannot forget the juniors at Edison—are keeping up the record that they started last year when they were sophomores. As the classes flash along like comets, soon to join in their studies and their recreation, we try with the aid of our telescope, to see what lies ahead. In the clouded skies we see only one light—the light of hope which shines brightly ahead in the schools of our land.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

Our "Little Bears," the roly-poly sophomores have come to join their fellow constellations in the Harding sky. Coming last September from the two junior highs Vernon Heights and Central, they united dropping all former jealousies and rivalries to emerge as the sophomore class of Harding High.

At Central they had a busy freshman year. Three one-act plays: "The Patched Coat," "Sea Food," and "Differential Kindness" were the dramatic productions given under direction of Miss Zelma Howard. Two plays, in which sound effects were first used on a program, were also given over Marion's radio station, WMRN by this same organization.

The school paper, "The Central X-Ray," with Charles Elliot as editor-in-chief was published ever three weeks by the English classes. In the athletic field Central was very active, winning the junior high school championships in football and basketball.

President of senior class, Day Hurst, welcomes the leaders of the sophomore class, Charles Elliot, president; Bill Williams, vice president; Arlene Hill, secretary; Dick Moore, treasurer.

While the Centralites were busy, the freshmen at Vernon Heights were also getting ready for Harding. Their student officers for the year were Rex Kilbourne, president; Charles Fazio, vice president; Robert Virden, secretary; Stewart Young, treasurer.

Under the direction of Miss Una Ackley and Miss Monna Brolier the dramatic club presented: "Princess Charming," "Archie Comes Home," and "Midnight Fantasy."

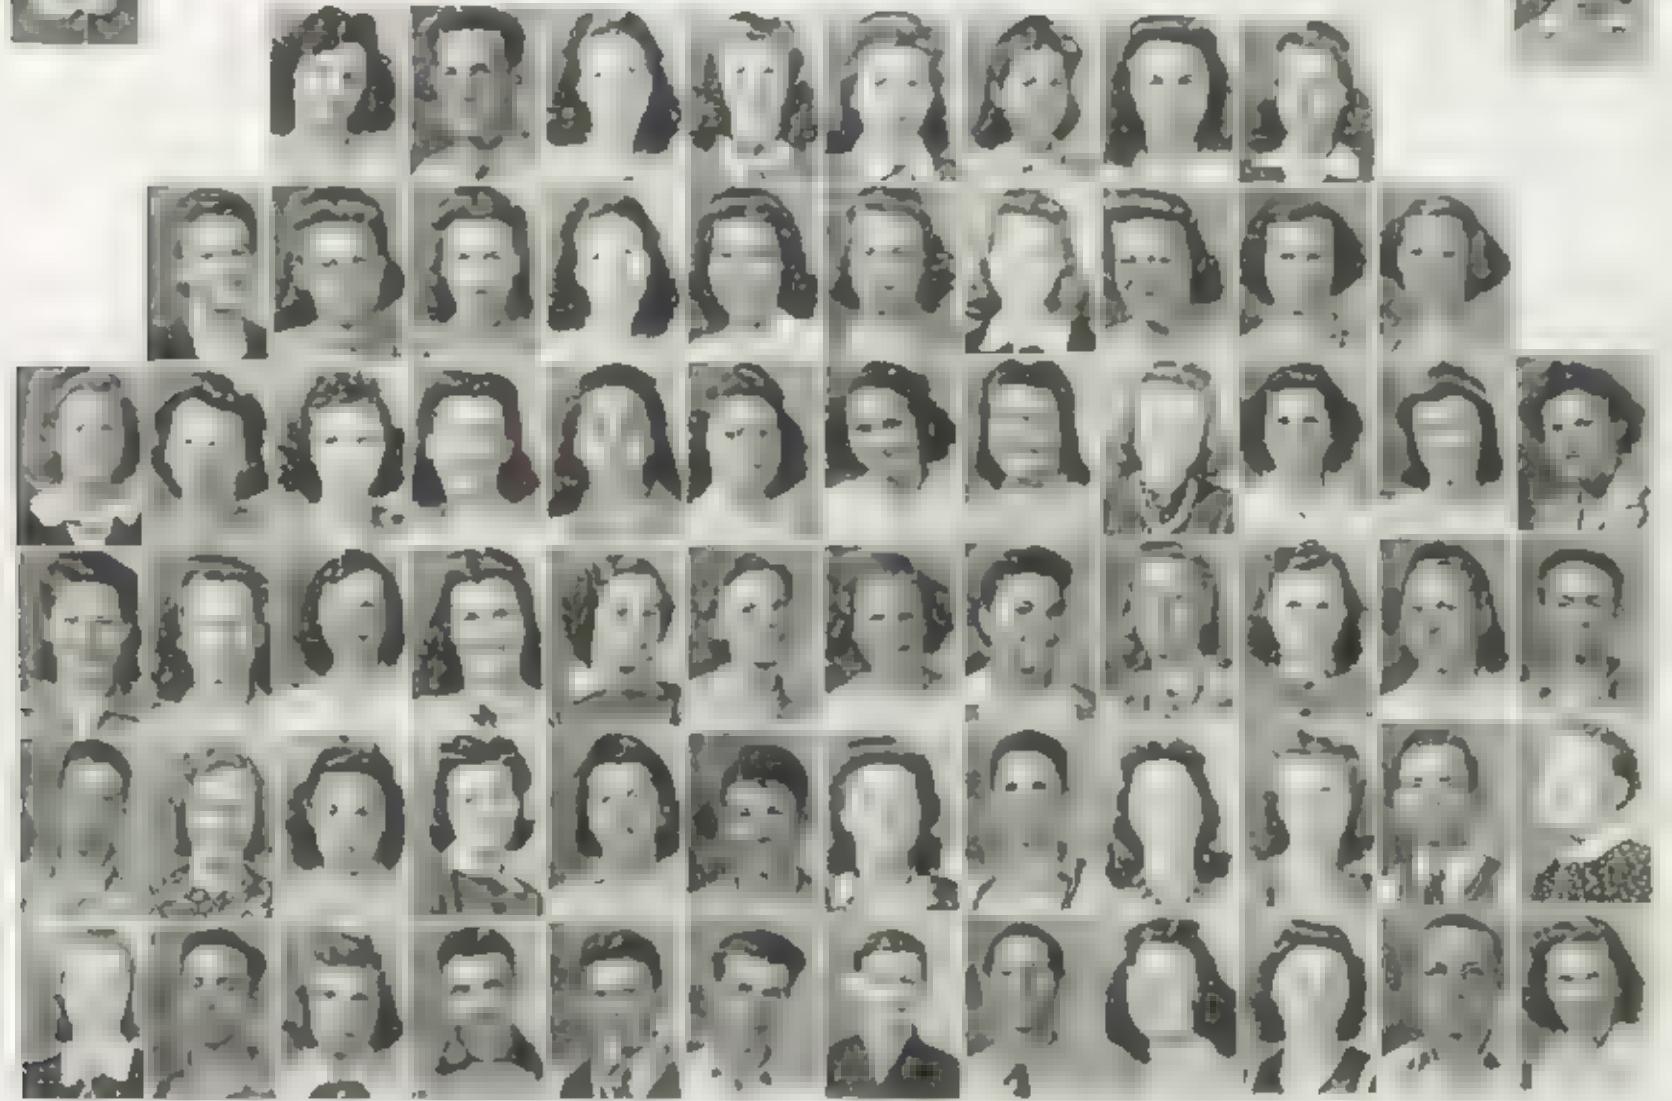

In the journalistic field was "The Vernonian Junior." This was the school paper published once each six weeks by the journalism club of the ninth grade. In the spring there was "The Vernonian" which is the annual of Vernon Heights. Many new features were introduced at Vernon. Boys learned to boil water without burning it and girls learned how to become an all around carpenter. The first student council at Vernon was also formed by this unusual class.

Here at Harding they elected for their leaders, Charles Elliott, president; Bill Williams, vice president; Arlene Hill, secretary; Dick Moore, treasurer.

The sophomore girls continued their splendid work in the many clubs at Harding. Among these are Girl Reserves, Props and Q's, G. A. A., Inter Nos, and others.

Sophomore candidates for football and basketball were active on the Jay-Vee squads and many others were active on the track and baseball teams.

Theirs has been a happy and fruitful year, full of many pleasant experiences and memories. We are assured beyond all doubt that they will take their place as one of the brightest stars in the heavens.

Edison juniors and sophomores of the class of 1942 have elected their officers. Calvin Scott, president; Charles L. Iams, vice president; Norma Jean Eddy, secretary; and Richard L. Fuster, treasurer.

The informal assembly of the two annual events held at the play director, Miss Mary Jo Stafford, presided over the final assembly of the concluding day of the year.

Russel Midlam, as president, assisted by James Erick, vice president; Twila Hickok, secretary; and Rose Nicolosi, treasurer, directed sophomore class events that included the staging of three one act plays on December 8. They were "Here Comes the Bride," "Dust of the Road," and "Where the Buffalo Roam" directed by Miss Winifred Fay. The play party for the cast and crew, and the annual party at which the sophomores entertain the juniors were also sophomore activities.

The Junior Red Cross under the leadership of Miss Jeanette Powers, enrolled the Edison juniors and senior high school members in the annual roll call for Red Cross. Other activities included refilling of the first aid kits in the school and making favors for hospitals and homes and donating services to the Senior Red Cross.

Scientific problems were carefully studied by members of the Scientific Research Club whose officers for the year were Ernest Osborne, president; Richard Augenstein, vice president; Rose Mary Jones, secretary-treasurer, and Mr. Mark Baker, advisor. A project of special interest was the making of soap.

The officers of the Girl's Athletic Association this year are Rhea Willauer, president; Helen Rengert, vice president; Maxine Darling, secretary; Genevieve Wright, treasurer; and Miss Nadine Hubert, advisor. For the first year the feminine athletes wore attractive red and black letters upon white sweaters.

Senior Girl Reserves were in charge of the Lenten Meditation held in the school auditorium preceding their presentation of the Easter assembly. They had a membership tea; they ushered at the Passion Play and volunteered with a canteen unit. Also they knitted for the Red Cross and joined the Hi-Y boys in a spring informal and in service projects. Officers of the club were: Norma Eddy, president; Betty Merchant, vice president; Maxine Darling, secretary; Sue Miller, treasurer; Eva Hinze, chaplain; Miss Mary Jo Stafford and Miss Margaret Young, advisors.

At the bi weekly meetings of the Library Council, new books were discussed and examined, and Miss Ethel Garn, sponsor, explained library routine so that the members were familiar with procedure and could assist the librarian.

The Hi-Y began its fall program with a Hallowe'en Masquerade dance and joined the Senior Girl Reserves in Christmas projects. Club officers are Charles Iams, president; Leonard Kellogg, vice president; Calvin Scott, secretary; Russel Midlam, treasurer; David Williamson, chaplain. Harold Markin is advisor.

The "Spotlight," which is a mimeographed publication prepared by the journalism and typing classes, were published at holidays with theme and holiday features predominating. In the weeks intervening, broadcasts were given over the school public address system bringing items of interest to the students from Station DEHS.

THE ACTIVITIES

The Muses, Goddesses of the dance, all

RADIO

A little over one year ago, on February 9, 1941, Harding High's first school news broadcast was held over Marion's new station, WMRX. This has since become a regular feature of Harding school life, on every Friday afternoon at 4:30 P. M. Each week two Harding "Roving Reporters" from the speech class of Miss Peterson presents the broadcast.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Lucile Foreman the script for 1941-1942 was written by the radio editors, Twylla Dawn Peterson and John Rea. Preparing the script material for a news broadcast is conducted much the same as that for "Herald" stories. When the material has been written up by the members of the journalism classes it is revised and edited by John or Twylla. After typing and further rechecking it is organized and assembled for the broadcast. Then follows drill in pronunciation, articulation and timing under the direction of Miss Peterson. Finally Friday comes and the week's results is a fifteen minute program on the "news and views of Harding students in the newest way."

BAND..ORCHESTRA..SENIOR CHOIR..JUNIOR CHOIR

I Hear Music - - -

In spite of rain, snow, and frostbitten faces and feet, the band in its red and black was always on hand to offer cheering marches to help us to keep up our spirits at the football games. Between halves special formations, which showed a great deal of practice, were given by band members.

"I love a Parade" might be the theme song of the band, for during the year, Harding was well represented in local parades. There was the annual Harding Memorial pilgrimage; the Veterans of Foreign Wars parade; and the Chamber of Commerce Christmas parade. In January several band members received recognition in the Ohio All State High School band. The annual mid winter concert was held February 22, and on March 14, several sections of the band entered the district competition at Delaware. The annual band party was held in March and in June the band played for the class day exercises at the stadium. The annual spring concert was given June 7. So ended another year of worthwhile activities. The band officers for school year 1941-42 were Sanford Lane, president; Frances Hedge, student director; Paul Mason, assistant student director; Frances Haas, librarian; and Tom Porter, drum major. This organization is directed by Mr. Homer Hoffman.

ORCHESTRA

One of Harding's most important institutions is the orchestra, which is under the direction of Mr. Homer Hoffman. This organization promotes classical and modern music in the school and has always maintained a high standard and good rating.

In March, one of the assembly programs was in charge of the orchestra, and several sections and soloists performed. The orchestra entertained between acts of the Junior Play on December 9 and 10 and in April held the appreciation concerts for junior high and grade schools. The orchestra was again on hand to play between acts of the Senior Play and for graduation exercises. On May 14, the annual concert was held and the picnic on June 3 ended the affairs of the year. The officers were Paul Mason, president; Nellie Rowland, librarian; Marjorie Schoonover, student directory; Marilyn Sanderson, concert master.

SENIOR CHOIR

"Let's hear the tenors sing it," or "Not so loud, altos" are some of the phrases you were likely to have heard if you had walked into the auditorium at Central during the fourth period in the morning, for that is where the Senior Choir, which is the most advanced group at Harding, held their daily sessions.

At Christmas the choir presented their annual cantata, "The Childe Jesus," in a program at Central auditorium and later in an assembly at school. On May 22, the choir gave a concert singing three groups of songs. The first was composed of religious songs; the next a group of Latvian melodies based upon the songs of a character named Happy Anna; and last a group of lighter airs. During the year the choir sang at the meetings of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs and also in many of the churches.

The Senior Choir is under the direction of Mr. L. G. Jones, and the officers are John Rea, president; Ross Cocherel, vice president; Janis Jones, Secretary-treasurer; Bill Glimpse and Cliff Hoch, librarians; and Barbara Breithaupt, accompanist.

JUNIOR CHOIR

The Junior Choir, composed of juniors and sophomores, is under the direction of L. G. Jones, music supervisor at Harding. The group is a preparatory one and endeavors to replace the graduating Senior Choir.

Tryouts were held at the beginning of the year and were based on voice, musicianship, and sight-reading. Marion Price and Lewis Beebe were chosen librarians.

MIXED CHORUS SPANISH CLUB LE PETIT SALON INTER NOS

Bon Jour... Saluēte ... Buenos Días

MIXED CHORUS

Meetings twice each week at Central Junior high school members of the Mixed Chorus concentrated during the year on development of the fundamental musical principles. This group is a preparatory one and endeavors to replace the graduating Senior Choir. Tryouts were held at the beginning of the year and were based upon voice, musicianship, and sight reading. The Mixed Chorus is composed mainly of sophomores and juniors and is under the direction of Mr. L. G. Jones. Martin Price and Lewis Beebe were chosen librarians, and Barbara Breithaupt, accompanist.

SPANISH CLUB

A newcomer at Harding is the Spanish Club appropriately named "Circulo Espanol. Students receiving a grade of A or B in Spanish are automatically made members. Annette Fazio served as the president; Gene Foley, vice president; Nelda Crabtree, secretary-treasurer; and Jim Houghton, reporter. The faculty advisor is the Spanish teacher, Miss Elizabeth Conley.

At their meetings the members learned several popular songs in Spanish and discussed Spanish customs. The purpose of this club is to promote a better understanding of the habits and the way of living of the people of the Spanish speaking countries.

LE PETIT SALON

Mlle. Isabel Freer and Mlle. Ruth Starr met with the A and B French students once every six weeks at the home of a member or at the Y. M. C. A. French was spoken at all meetings and crossword puzzles, skits, and jumbled French words were the entertainment offered. Though the French spoken by the members was not that of a polished diplomat, the meetings were enjoyed by all. The officers elected for this year were: William Gracely, president; John Rea, vice president; Ruth Wise, secretary; George Porter, treasurer; Charlie Roberts, reporter.

INTER NOS

Veni- vidi, vici — amo, amas, amat. No, this is not a new college cheer. Just the daily thoughts and speech of the members of the Latin Club, Inter Nos. This organization, the oldest at Harding, is composed of all third and fourth year students who are taking the study of Vergil. The meetings of Inter Nos are held once every six weeks at the home of one of the members. "A Study of Roman Life" was selected at the beginning of the year as a theme for the programs and at each meeting the roll call and program are prepared upon a different phase of this theme. As a project for the year, the club undertook to secure new Latin songbooks. The officers for 1941-1942 were: George Sisson, president; Genevieve Graham, vice president; Elmer Myer's secretary; Annette Fazio, treasurer; and Bill Bacon, song leader.

"INSIDE THE LINES"

By EARL DERR BIGGERS

Weaving the elements of mystery and comedy into an exciting patter, "Inside the Lines" had everyone on the edge of his seat. One of the main reasons this play was chosen was that it applied so well to present world conditions. From behind the scenes it was interesting to watch Miss Foreman mold each character into his part.

The Rock of Gibraltar is the scene of the play, with a plot to destroy a part of the British fleet furnishing the action. Things go well for the plotters until late in the third act things are set right side up again and the Rock is saved from the Wilhelmstrasse agents.

CAST

JUNIOR PLAY

The allure of the theater beckoned to the juniors at Harding when they presented their annual play on December twenty-ninth. Ordinary students became actors, make-up artists, stage hands and ushers. After long weeks of practice the big day finally came. Miss Lois Peterson was in charge of directing the play.

The play chosen was "Joy of Living," a Hollywood success of several seasons past. Comedy and pathos are mixed as the drama unfolds. The story concerns a successful and rich young actress and her poor relatives who are rather dusty in their Shakespearean roles. Since the Shakespeare trend seems, at the moment, to be standing with one foot in the grave, all the relatives come to live with the heroine and try to railroad her into marrying a rich young man whom she does not love. The hero enters in disguise and heroine attempts to rid herself of him, but he persists in trying to make her happy, and she finally submits. All live happily ever after.

GIRL RESERVES

Minerva, typifying the highest ideals

GIRL RESERVES

The Girl Reserves stayed in the limelight as Harding's largest organization while suffering with the loss of their head advisor, Miss Mabel Turney. This year a complete printed program, planned by the cabinet during the summer months, was followed and added enthusiasm to the club. Dorothy Ann Taylor was elected president with Anna Marie Isay vice president, Mary Lue Jewellian secretary, Ann Schaffner treasurer, Mary Queen chaplain. Two picnic meetings were held while skirts hardened off. "sings speakers, pot luck, and folk dancing made up the regular meetings. A "Winter Carnival" was sponsored by the group, with King Winter and Queen Snow reigning in the frosty throne and throwing snowballs at their subjects." For the first time in Harding Girl Reserve history a Mother-Daughter banquet was given and was an outstanding success. A roller skating party, an annual Girl Reserve affair, was one of the year's first activities.

National Girl Reserve Week was celebrated at Harding by an assembly and all Girl Reserves wearing blue armbands. It was during this week the girls attended church in a body. The last meeting was a campfire-picnic which ended a perfect year of service to the community and school.

This club was advised by: Miss Mabel Turney, Miss Martha Mouser, Miss Ruth Starr, and Miss Margery Eymun.

GIRL RESERVE RING GROUP

During the school year twenty girls worked for the right to wear the Girl Reserve ring. Under the leadership of Ruth Ann Abel and Annette Fazio these girls passed three guide posts before the induction services on May 3. The services were held at the Central Christian Church with the organ accompaniment played by Mrs. Harry Bell.

Ann Wiedemann was chosen secretary, and Miss Martha Mouser acted as advisor in the absence of Miss Mabel Turney.

The members are chosen late in the school year so that the only activity beside the play is the annual banquet given for the cast and director Miss Lucile Foreman

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The installation ceremony for new members of the Harding chapter of the National Honor Society, was held in West Hall, May 13, 1942, for not more than 44 seniors selected from the top 30 per cent of their class.

The members were selected by the faculty, who based their choices on these points: character, leadership and service.

The ceremony was supervised by Miss Isabel Freer

VOUGETTES PROPS AND Q'S

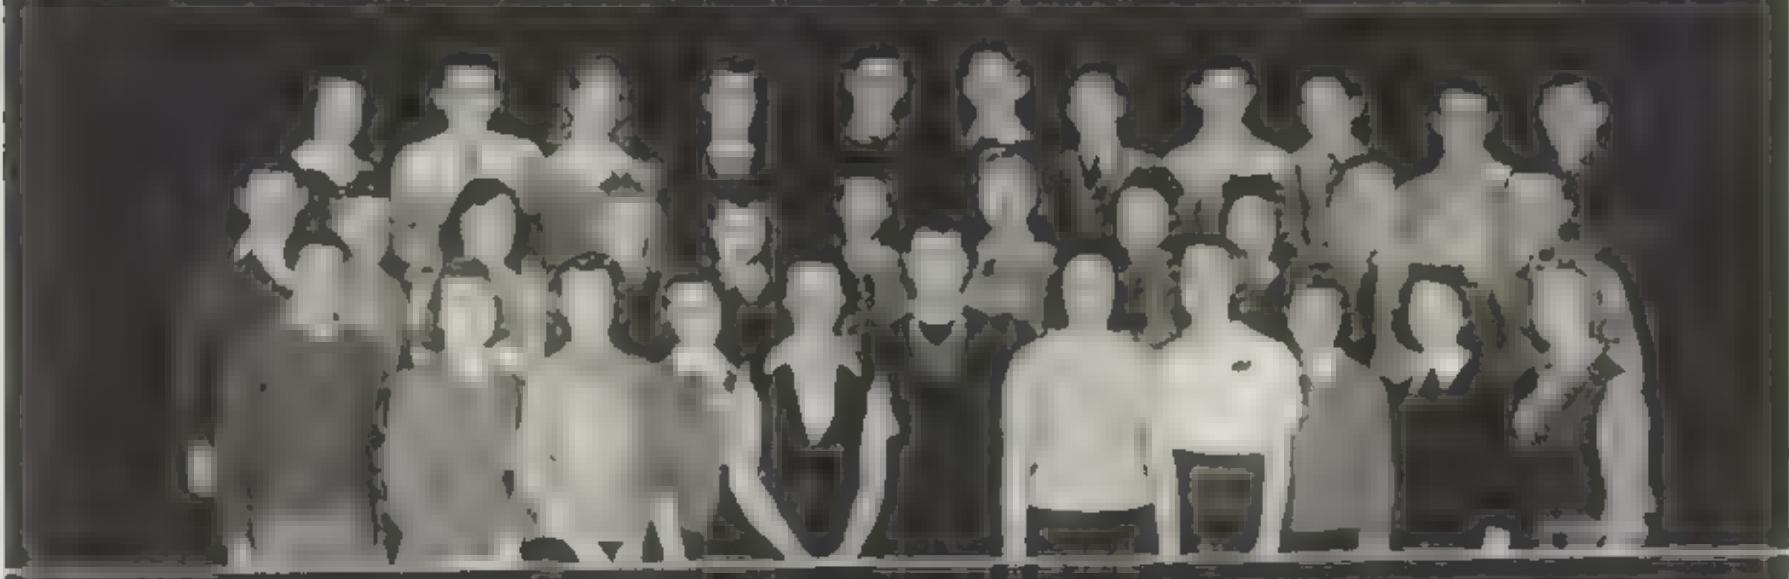

VOUGETTES

Students enrolled in the Home Economics Department at Harting will have the right to be members in the Vougettes Club. With the advantage of the new home economics department the girls entertained with banquets, pot lucks, and teas. Miss Pauline Stannard acted as advisor. The officers are: Betty Petersen, president; Velda Beers, vice president; Alice Creviston - secretary; Geneva Yerney - treasurer; Grace Fremont, program chairman.

Following the purpose and aims of the club the girls have made the school conscious of the practicalities of sewing and cooking in high school. The purpose and aims of the group are to "Develop professional spirit and co-operation among their members," and to "Provide opportunities for play, recreation, and social contact, gain experience in parliamentary procedure so as to be able to work effectively and harmoniously in community groups.

PROPS AND Q'S

Lights, curtain, cues, . . . and the play is on. This begins another program of Props and Q's, the dramatic club at Harding. The purpose of this organization is to develop the individual dramatic abilities of each of its members. Its meetings were held every other Wednesday afternoon in West Hall. All of the members were active either with acting parts or with the projection stints. During the year the club sponsored several assembly programs and purchased two $25.00 defense bonds. Miss Lois Peterson who was replaced by Louise Cottman in March was adviser; the officers for the year were: John Rea, president; Donna Ruhl, vice president; Don Porter, secretary; and Martha Hord, treasurer.

BANKING CLUB VOGUETTES CHEMISTRY LIBRARY COUNCIL

Service Clubs All . . .

BANKING CLUB

The Banking Club joins Harding's extra-curricular activities for the first time with the motto of "Save, Save, Save. The club has three important committees; namely, the pep committee, the advertising committee, and the check committee. Every two weeks on Monday the club holds its meeting at school. The officers of the club are: Bill Fate, president; Ed Converse, vice president; Eileen Clark, secretary-treasurer. The faculty advisor at the beginning of the school year was Mr. Zuck but after he was inducted into the army Miss Mouser took over his position as advisor of the Banking Club.

RED CROSS

Elected from the home rooms the members of the Red Cross Council assembled for meetings to carry out the Red Cross program in the schools. With Miss Starnard as sponsor and Bonnie Thomas president, Joe Baker, vice president; Eleanor Marriott, secretary; Peggy Hale, treasurer, the council collected the school Red Cross quota. At Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets were filled and distributed with a group of needy but appreciative families. The large Christmas tree found in Harding's hall was decorated by the Red Cross Council and the girls knitted sweaters for the local chapter.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club of Harding High school was organized in September 1941 with Miss Ruth Turner as faculty advisor. The purpose of the club is to arouse practical interest in the chemical world. During the year, the members of the club give an assembly program, took field trips to the Water Plant, Sewage Disposal Plant, Bakery, and Ice Plant.

The Chemistry Club is affiliated with the National Chemistry Clubs, has a Constitution, and is led by the following officers: Bill Bacon, president; John Rea, vice president; Virginia Stuckey, secretary; Rinsome Williams, treasurer.

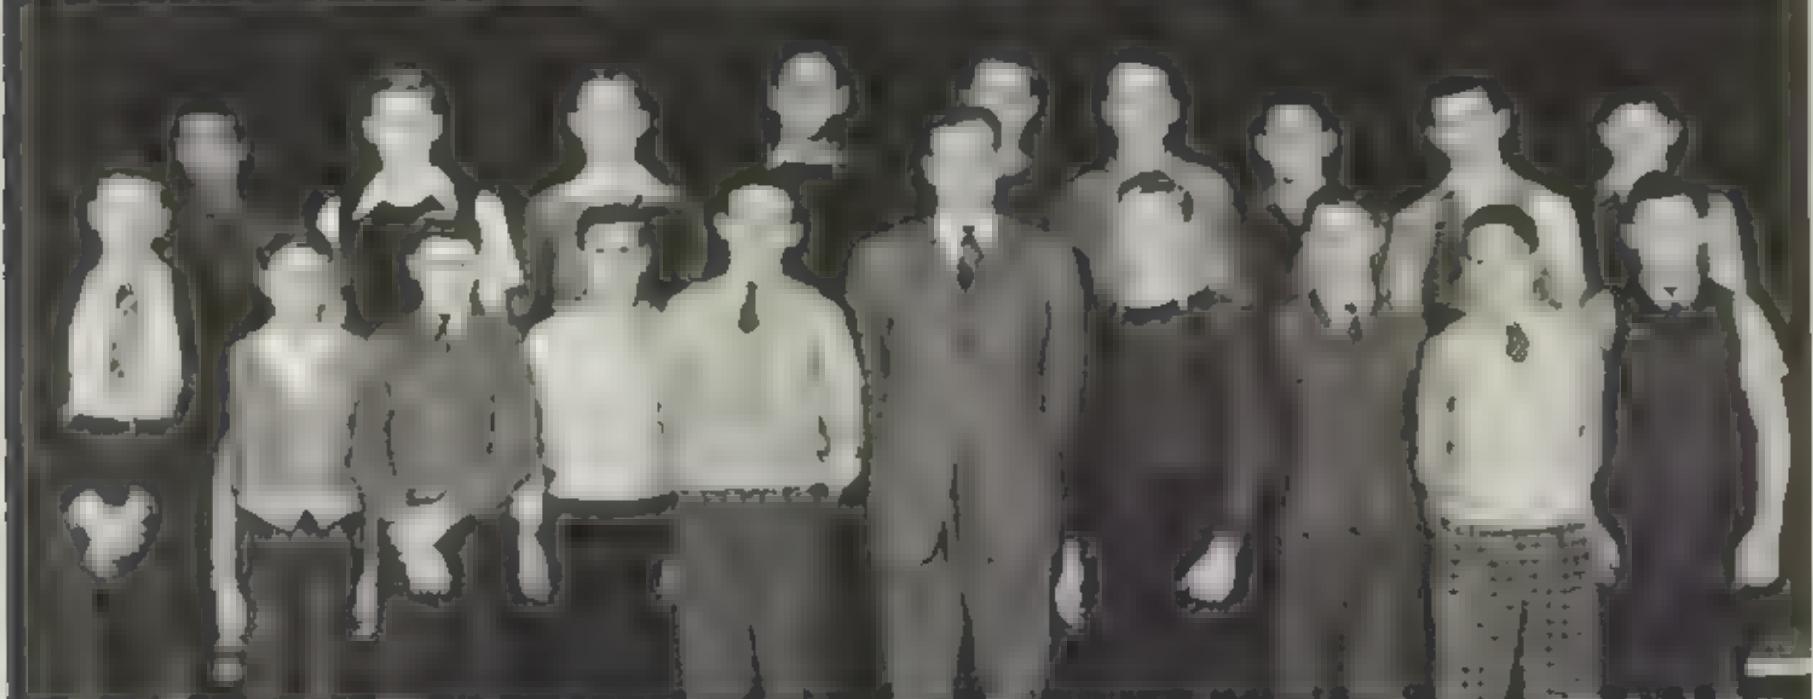

The club is divided into three groups. The photography group, is made up of six members, the chairman being Terrell Areson. They hold their meetings twice a month during which time a business meeting is held. This is followed by the printing and the developing of pictures. A project of this group is a hike during which time pictures will be taken and later developed by the group.

The analytical group is made up of those students interested in simple chemical analysis and metallurgy. During the meetings they discuss and work problems, discuss recent discoveries and the original ideas of the members. Ramy Williams of the biological group gave a demonstration of the tests for protein and carbohydrates. Such tests as these are done in their group meetings.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

The members of the Library Council with their advisor Miss Margaret Dennis met every two weeks in the library after school. This group promoted student projects, wrote numbers in the backs of books, typed library cards, catalogued books, and repaired books when they were torn. Miss Dennis is also in charge of ordering all Book League Books for the literature classes.

The officers this year were: Gloria Danner, president; Betty Wahlgren, vice president; Annette Fazio, treasurer.

HARDING'S HI-Y

TIRONIAN CLUB

Meleager, a Truth Loving Youth

SENIOR HI-Y

In the third and last year of their Hi-Y experience Senior Hi-Y boys finished with many successful activities behind them. During the year they sponsored the Father's Night ceremonies at the Lima Central football game, started the Co-Ed Club, and co-sponsored with the Girl Reserves a Christmas party for fifty-seven children from the children's home.

During the week of January 26-30, a courtesy campaign was begun to make Harding a better school, and on March 29 the annual Hi-Y induction service was held at the Prospect Street Methodist Church. In the spring there was also the annual carnival and the Father-Son banquet.

The Hi-Y bowling squad had a successful season as did the two basketball teams, the Rockets and the Independents.

John Rea was president of this group; Charlie Roberts, vice president; Jim Klingenberger, secretary; and Ed Messenger, treasurer. Mr. Thomas Zuck was the faculty advisor and Mr. Robert Atkinson served as club leader.

JUNIOR HI-Y

A Mother's Night for the mothers of the varsity basketball squad and a pep rally were among the main projects of the Junior Hi-Y. These events were held at the Ohio Theatre and were a big success. This group had a bowling team and their basketball squad was called the Kay Preachers. The club did its best to live up to the Hi-Y purpose, "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The officers for the year were: Jack Holt, president; Dick Cleary, vice president; and Eugene Reasoner, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Eric Williams acted as club leader and Mr. E. Paul Huffnau was faculty advisor.

This group of boys was made up of sophomores who were Torch-Y members at Central and Vernon. They made a good start in their first year at Harding. With an interesting set of speakers and with other types of programs, this club should go places in the next two years. Their two basketball teams called themselves the Corns and the Tinnies. Officers for the year were: Rex Kilbourne, president; John Gast, vice president; Dick Moore, secretary; and Bob Virden, treasurer. William Turner was the club leader and Mr. Wilson Fleming acted as faculty advisor.

TIRONIAN CLUB

The popular song "Please Take a Letter, Miss Brown" might easily be used as the theme song of the Tironian club for it is composed of students taking shorthand II.

The club was founded in the class of '24 through the efforts of Mrs. Loretta R. Tilton and has been under the sponsorship of Mr. Russel Duolap since 1927.

"Tironian" was taken from the name Tyro who was a Greek slave of Cicero's. When he was freed he became Cicero's private secretary, and perfected a system of shorthand in Latin.

Students belonging to the Tironian club are members of a Shorthand II class and have an average grade of "A" or "B." The meetings are very informal and are held at the homes of the members. Among the different meetings were pot lucks, chicken fries, and weiner roasts. The outstanding events of the year are the Christmas exchange and the annual spring banquet.

The officers for this year were: Donna Ruhl, president; Doris Shirk, vice president; Doris Freeman, secretary; Kathryn Graff, treasurer; and Ruth Bonen, reporter.

Appreciation

I wish to thank my advisor, Miss Marian Conley, and our principal, Mr. O. H. P. Snyder, without whose frank and helpful advice this book could not have been published. To Mr. Dale Hughes and his staff I wish to extend the deepest gratitude for their great contribution to this book. I wish to thank Ross Aikin, Harold Stinehelfer, and Loren Tibbials for their generosity in donating action shots for the various sections. For their help in securing the advertising I express my appreciation to the various salesmanship classes of Harding High. I wish to thank Miss Martha Mouser for her assistance during the rush to meet deadlines. Most of all I wish to express my appreciation to my staff who have been indispensable and most cooperative through all the months of collecting material for this book. To all the teachers who assisted with the activities of my staff and to Paul Robinson who assisted during the subscription campaign I wish to extend thanks. Also I appreciated the helpful advice of the Pontiac Engraving and Electrotypes Co., their representative, Mr. William Freund; The Kingscraft Co., their representative, Mr. Robert Wilson, and Mr. John Fitzgerald of the Capital Printing Co.

Sincerely,

ANNA MARIE ISALY.

Outstanding Excerpts

The Harding Gridmen started the season by smashing the powerful Cleveland John Marshall eleven for a 35-0 score. . . . Picking up a blocked kick, Day Hurst ran thirty-five yards for the only score at the Toledo Woodward struggle. . . . Despite muddy field and frequent showers the Presidents made the best of two pass interceptions and trounced the Ashland High squad 12-0. . . . Although the field was a sea of mud, the fumbles were frequent the line and backfield worked in perfect harmony to walk over Bucyrus 38-0. Driven by the determination not to be scored upon Harding's unbeatable eleven captured the N.C.O. Championship by romping over a valiant Galion team . . .

The all-around champions

Like Perseus of old, who has his fame perpetuated in the stars, the Harding Prexies proved too powerful for their foes. Showing grit and determination, the boys came through the season unscathed, with but two scoreless ties, one with Mt. Vernon and one with Lima Central, to mar an otherwise perfect slate. This was Hardings first unscathed upon season in their sixteen years of membership in the N.C.O. League. It is, however, the third successive championship, and the fourth that the Presidents have held since they entered league competition.

Old man weather wasn't particularly consistent this year. The team played in warm weather and cold weather, in rain, in snow, and in mud—but they still came through with flying colors.

THE HARDING CHAMPIONS

HARDING vs. CLEVELAND JOHN MARSHALL

Coach B. B. Williams' 1941 grid squad took to the field against Cleveland John Marshall in the season's first opener at the Harding stadium. As a sign of what to expect, the Presidents forced the John Marshall team to bow to a 35 to 0 defeat.

In the first quarter, Roberts and Harvey set the stage with a 55 yard march for Hurst's touchdown play. Turner followed by booting a perfect extra point. Kemmerly and Daley tallied in the second quarter; Kemmerly, with a pass from Roberts, and Daley, by grabbing a Marshall pass. Harvey converted both points. In the last half, Harding passes and interceptions were good for two more goals, and both conversions were good.

HARDING vs. TOLEDO WOODWARD

The Presidents next attacked the heavy Toledo Woodward group, and though seriously outweighed, managed to come through with a 6 to 0 verdict in their favor. The game began by both sides vainly attempting to drive through a weak spot in the other line-up. It was not until the third quarter that Hurst picked up a Woodward punt (clocked at 80 yards) and raced 35 yards to break off the 45's end of the zone. Lemke provided a thrill in the last quarter by running 75 yards for an attempted touchdown, only to fail because of an out-of-bounds ruling.

HARDING vs. MT. VERNON

Mt. Vernon and Lima Central managed to hold the Champs to a scoreless tie in the next two games. The Mt. Vernon game, fought in a sea of mud, was referred to as "one of the greatest naval battles in history." Shoving, sliding and tackling were abundant and neither team was able to turn in a try for a scoring thrust.

HARDING vs. LIMA CENTRAL

Harding faced the stronger Lima Central aggregation in a game which became a punting duel. The only serious Lima threats came in the last half. Twice the Lima team drove to our 2 yard line only to be thrown back by a stubborn resistance supported by Roberts' interceptions and Hurst's exact kicking. In the closing minutes of the 3rd quarter Lewis attempted a 90 yard bid for a score but the touchdown was nullified by a penalty. The game ended as the Presidents were making a forced march toward the Lima goal.

HARDING vs. ASHLAND

Interceptions were the rule of the day as Harding met the Ashland eleven on a wet and muddy field. The game started slowly, with each side moving warily because of the adverse weather conditions. Ashland took to the air in an offensive which proved to be to our advantage. The first Harding interception came in the second quarter when Jenkins snagged a long pass and raced 55 yards to a score. Several Ashland touchdown thrusts were stopped by the stubborn resistance of the Presidents who held the line deep into their own scoring territory. Belknap intercepted a wild Ashland throw and galloped to the one yard line, where he plowed through for six points. The game ended 12-0 in Harding's favor.

HARDING vs. BUCYRUS

Breaking the N.C.O. Jinx, Harding trounced the Bucyrus Redmen 38-0. Hurst and Belknap crossed the line twice to receive the scoring honors for the game. The Prexies scored in every quarter from running and power plays.

HARDING vs. SHELBY

Harding emerged as the League leader by overrunning a valiant Shelby team 19 to 0 in a bitterly contested battle. The marionites made important gains throughout the game by dusting off the little-used lateral pass and backfield reverse plays. Shelby started a scoring threat in the last minutes of play, but the gun sounded before they could make good.

HARDING vs. GALION

By pointing the outclassed Galion squad 66-0 Harding clinched the league title in the last game of the season. The Orangemen couldn't stand up under the constant barrage but fought as best they could till the final gun.

Junior Varsity Gridmen

The prospective varsity players who are now working under the Jay Vee banner presented a fine record for the season and a promise of strong Prexie teams in the future.

The Vice Presidents blanked the Delaware Jr. Varsity 39-0 in the opening game of the season. They next met an older and stronger Richwood Varsity who handed them a 7-0 setback in a hard-fought scrap. The next opponent, the Galion second stringers, went down in a 12-0 defeat. Tackling the Mansfield undergrads, our boys rang up thirteen points to the score of six for their opponents. In the next encounter, the LaRue Varsity drubbed the locals 18-6. Closing the season with two return games, Harding held the Richwood team to a scoreless tie, and then absorbed a 6-0 pounding from the Mansfield second team.

Despite the enormous handicap of not having a gymnasium of their own, Harding's "gymless wonders" fought through to share the N.C.O. basketball crown.

Riding over the Delaware Willis Senators 31-19, the Harding Prexies showed good starting form. They were paced by Roberts, Shellhorn, and Mulvaine, a junior who has some remarkable abilities.

Harding was blitzed by a whirlwind attack in the first half of the game with Columbus North and couldn't come out from under in time to stem the tide. The last half saw the Presidents making a valiant but unsuccessful attempt to out-point the Polar Bears as the game ended 42-23.

Handing out a surprise, Harding toppled the favored Bexley quintet 41-20 in the third game of the season. The lead was held throughout the game by the locals. Hurst and Shellhorn came through with the scoring punch by sinking the sphere for twelve and ten points respectively.

hit the top

Mr. Vernon delivered a setback to the Prexies in the first N.C.O. encounter by running up 35 points to our 24. By leading 5-2 at the end of the first period, it seemed that we could win by a slight margin, but the Yellow Jackets increased their pressure so that by the end of the third period the game had definitely gone the wrong way. The Harding quintets managed to hold the score as low as possible in the last quarter by dropping in nine points to the opposition's eight.

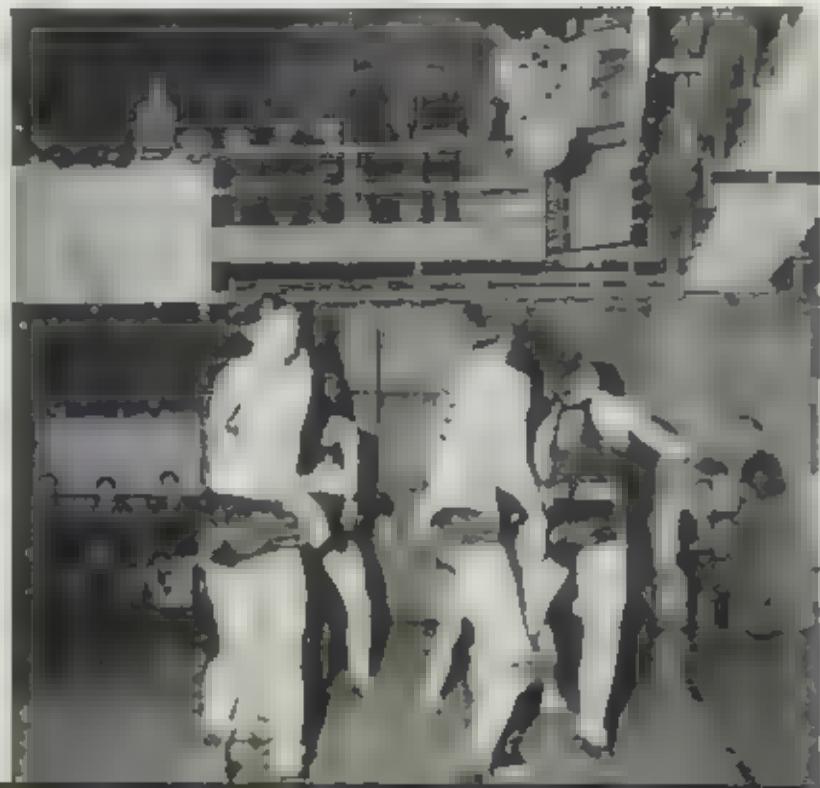

Scoring by all of the five Harding starters highlighted the Bucyrus-Harding tangle. Clever defense tactics enabled the Prexies to bottle-up the Bucyrus scoring threats as Shellhorn starred as scoring ace with fifteen points. Score: Harding 32, Bucyrus 21.

Guarding Shellhorn was of no avail to the Shelby Whippets as they absorbed a 28-21 drubbing. The "gymless wonders" co-operated to form a snappy defensive-offensive combination.

A seventeen point lead in the first quarter of the Harding-Galion game proved to be merely a starter for the score stood at the end of the game at 63-23 in favor of the locals. Coach Bohyer found it possible to use his second team during the most of the second half.

Although not quite coming up to the record of their older teammates, the Junior Jay Vees, nevertheless, presented an enviable season.

The Delaware Willis Reserves proved to be the first victims when the Vice Presidents won the season's opener by the narrow margin of 29-28.

Going to Columbus for the next two games, the local five split the honors, one game going to Columbus North 35-21, and the other a 21-18 decision over Bexley.

The rest of the games were in the N.C.C.O. circuit and two games were played with each school.

A strong Mt. Vernon squad took both games, the first by a score of 29-19, and the second, 31-18.

Harding's Junior Presidents also found the Bucyrus Reservists too powerful for them. The scores, however, were close, the Redmen winning by 16-13 and 19-18.

Harding then took the initiative with the Vice-Presxies downing the Shelby quintet by 26-13 in the first game, and 28-24 in the second. A weakness in foul shooting in the Harding team was noticed in the latter game, but this deficiency was more than made up by field goals.

Galion also felt the sting of defeat at the hands of the Harding Reserves. The Presxies showed a lot of improvement in the first encounter and placed over 26 points to Galion's 9. The other game ended with a 27-8 advantage for the locals.

The Preskie second stringers also absorbed a pair of trouncings from the Ashland squad. Although they battled valiantly they could not overcome the superiority which defeated them 22-16 in the first contest and the 24-14 drubbing which closed the season.

The Harding Reserve team has won some games, lost some, and has gathered a few hard knocks, but it is a team which can take to the floor next year as an experienced varsity squad.

TRACK

The Harding thinclads looked toward a good cinder season this year as almost all of last year's squad reported for training. Since most of the boys had trained with the football and basketball squads, they exhibited fine pre-season form and readily worked out the kinks in their muscles.

The track squad went to the Ohio Wesleyan Relays to open the season's competition. The results of this meet enabled the tracksters to gauge their abilities and those of their opponents. The next match was with the Mansfield Varsity. Then came the triangle meet with the Ashland and Bucyrus teams on the Bucyrus track. The important event of the season was the District Meet at Delaware from which the highest three teams were to go to the State finals.

Coach Niemi has some promising junior and sophomore trackmen who should develop into the point-makers of the next year or two.

BASEBALL

Although the Harding baseball team, coached by Bill Williams has received little publicity in the past, it nevertheless has produced some outstanding results. Joe Roseberry was called to try out with the St. Louis Cardinals under their farm system.

Because of the difficulties of obtaining transportation, among other things, this year's schedule consisted of short notice games, games played even though they were arranged only a day or two in advance. This type of a schedule brings out the best in a team because there is very little time to spot the weaknesses and advantages of an opponent. Each player must be able to spot these points instantly and make allowances for them in his playing. The short-notice games helped the Prexies very much this season, and they have built up a team organization which can look confidently ahead to times of fewer handicaps.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Girls in aprons, pig tails, red ribbons, old stockings, and faces as pale as ghosts was a common sight in March. These girls were candidates for Harding's G. A. A. On March 25 they were inducted into the club by the old members. Under the direction of Patricia Dodd, president; Ann Mapes, vice president; Thelma Wilmeth, secretary; Ann Schaffner, treasurer; the club's sixty one members attended sports and special business meetings. Volley ball was the most popular game, though ping pong, quoits, and darts were available. The annual G. A. A. formal was held in May with the usual "gala" time.

Miss Hulbert, joining the faculty rank as girl's physical education teacher, was sponsor of the G. A. A.

KINESIAN CLUB

The thirty-six senior girls who took physical education were automatically members of Harding's Kinesian Club. Early in the fall the club was organized with Josephine Judy, president; Gloria Danner, secretary; Mary Barkley, treasurer. On the first Monday of each month these girls gathered in West Hall with their faculty advisor, Miss Hulbert, for business and social meetings. A highlight of the first semester was the "Grapevine Swing" sponsored by the Kinesian Club and held at Edison Junior High School.

The Associated Students

THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF HARDING HIGH SCHOOL

Senior, junior, and sophomore students of Harding High school were elected to represent the school on the proposed "The Associated Students of Harding High." Purposes of the organization, which is to serve somewhat as student councils do in other schools, are to promote unity, develop spirit, to govern and to promote the general welfare at Harding.

The members elected were: Seniors: Paul Weiler, John Rea, Day Hurst, Dorothy Taylor, Jean Hennigh, and Twylla Dawn Peterson. Juniors: Keith Williams, Tom Hurst, Mary Johnson, and Mary Jane Llewellyn. Sophomores: Charles Elliott, John Gast, Arlene Hill, and Elizabeth Zuspan.

Faculty members appointed to the association are Miss Edith Brown, Miss Isabel Freer, and Mr. Wilson Fleming. These appointments were made by the faculty members.

The third week in April the junior high schools elected their members for the association and those chosen are at Vernon, Fritz Guy and Phyllis Haight; at Central, Richard Rea and Ann Thomas; at Edixon, Norma Jean Eddy and Floyd Decker.

The farmer had watched the motorist working on his second-hand car for about an hour.

"What are you looking at?" asked the motorist. "Is this the first motor car you've ever seen?"

"No," was the dry reply, "but it's very much like it."
